For Officers in Scale I and Office Assistants (Multipurpose), the provisional allotment shall be restricted within the RRBs of the State opted for.

A candidate belonging to reserved category, selected on the basis of norms as applicable to General Category, will be treated at par with a General category candidate. Such own merit candidates belonging to reserved categories who are provisionally allotted under unreserved (General) category will not be adjusted against a reserved post. However, their original category as registered in the online registration will remain unchanged and they shall be required to produce their caste certificate as applicable to them irrespective of their selection under unreserved category. Failure to provide the same shall debar the candidate from further process.

In the event of two or more candidates having obtained the same score, merit order is decided as per date of birth (the candidate senior in age is placed before/ above the candidate junior in age), as per the prevailing practice.

The provisional allotment is subject to the candidate fulfilling the criteria for RRBs and identity verification to the satisfaction of the allotted RRB. Verification of documents with regard to eligibility criteria will be carried out by the Allotted RRB. This does not constitute an offer of employment. In case it is detected at any stage of the recruitment process that, the candidate does not satisfy the eligibility criteria his/her candidature/ chance in the selection process shall stand forfeited.

As the provisional allotment will be made to the Participating RRBs on merit cum preference basis, once the provisional allotment is made, no request for change shall be entertained. Any request for change shall result in cancellation of candidature.

Provisional allotment once made shall be final and binding on the candidate and no further provisional allotment can be requested.

A candidate who is provisionally allotted will forfeit his/her candidature/ chance for the selection process if he/she does not avail the offer of appointment from the allotted RRB.

A reserve list to the extent of vacancies as per extant provision will be drawn in each category subject to exigencies and availability of candidates. This does not guarantee provisional allotment to/recruitment by the RRBs. In the event of RRBs providing further vacancies, within the validity period of the Reserve List at different intervals, provisional allotment will be carried out three to four times for the candidates in the reserve list subject to vacancies being provided within one year after the date of provisional allotment. However, if no vacancy is furnished by the RRBs owing to exigencies or otherwise during the validity period the candidates under the reserve list will not be considered for provisional allotment. The reserve list will expire automatically on the day which is one year after the date of Provisional Allotment or until a fresh provisional allotment is made, whichever is earlier, with or without any notice. Candidates who are not provisionally allotted or not in the reserve list will not be considered for any further process under CRP RRBs- XIV.

IBPS is not responsible in case the RRBs do not notify sufficient vacancies to exhaust the reserve list. Similarly, neither the RRBs nor IBPS is bound to notify every vacancy that may arise in any RRB during pendency of reserve list. IBPS is not responsible for the recruitment of candidates, and will only act upon the vacancies notified by the RRBs in that regard within the specified period.

The decision of IBPS in provisional allotment of RRBs shall be final and binding upon the selected candidates. However, IBPS reserves the right to cancel, reallocate RRB-wise allocation/ change the process depending upon exigencies or otherwise.
